SEEN IN THE SHOPS

Land & Control

M'LISS DISCUSSES NEW TYPE OF WOMAN DESCRIBED BY WELLS

The Weak and Winsome Variety to Be Superseded by a Queer Sort-Tall and Weather-beaten

H. G. Wells, who is always prophesy-Ing about something or other, and who ously enough sometimes has the good fortune to see his prognostications come true, in an article in the Ladies' Home Journal for June, which should be of interest to every woman in America, indulges in an excess of pessimism. Hist to what he has to say:

Vinsome, weak womanhood will be told bluntly by men and women alike that it is a bore. The frou frou of skirts, the delicate mysteries of the toilet will cease to thrill any but the very young

"Beauty enthroned for love must give way to the tall weather-hardened woman with a spear, loving her mate as her mate loves her and as sexless as a man in all her busy hours.

"There have always been women who wanted to share men's work and women who wanted to 'inspire' it. The ordinary woman fluctuates between the two-turns now to the Western ideal of citizenship and now to the Eastern of submission.

"Once to be married was a woman's whole career. All her romances ended in marriage; all a decent man's er.ded "A marriage that does not ripen into a close personal friendship between the two equals will be regarded with increasing definiteness as an unsatisfactory mar-

It remains to be proved that "the frou frou of skirts and the delicate mysteries the very young men."

Personally, I don't believe it. I think it will take even more than a world war I think not. to pull down from the high niche in which man has enshrined her the weak. wir : me woman, or, as she is more generally known, the clinging vine. Even were Mr. Wells' article unsigned the masculinity of its author would be equals will be regarded with increasing discernible. For instance, no woman in this day and age would ever have writ- riage."

WHAT a busy time the pessimists are | ten "the delicate mysteries of the tollet having predicting dire happenings will cease to thrill any but the very young men.

It is to laugh. In an era when women without qualm or blush stop in front of mirrors in shop windows and apply salve to their lips or rouge to their cheeks; when powder puffs and eyebrow pencils may be found in virtually every woman's hand satchel; in short, when women carry all their pulchritudinous ammunition with them, and do not hesitate to flash it in the open, why speak of delicate mysteries of the toilet?

Also, every woman knows that It is not the young man who is susceptible. He is not the one most easily fooled. It is the middle-aged and the old, those whose illusions concerning the sex have grown with the years, who are the "easy marks" for the woman with nothing else to depend on for her charm but the frou frou of her skirts and the so-called mysteries of her toilet.

And as for the substitute Mr. Wells offers us, "the tall weather-hardened woman with a spear," I must confess I wouldn't give a fig for her appeal. The tentacles of the clinging vine are ham pering enough. I should say, but why a woman with a spear? Of course, the eminent English author writes symbolically, but his choice of symbols is certainly Ill-advised.

I agree with him that woman should be "sexless" in business. All honorable and proud women are, scorning to obtain favors by their sex to which their merits do not entitle them. But is it necessary that we become human porcupines; that we substitute prickly bristles for of the tollet will cease to thrill any but frou-frouing skirts in order to take our rightful, albeit long-delayed, places side by side in the business world with men?

One sentence, however, that I have quoted is worthy of the most respectful attention:

"A marriage that does not ripen into a close personal friendship between two definiteness as an unsatisfactory mar-

Letters to the Editor of the Woman's Page Address all communications to M'Liss, care of the Evening Ledger. Write on one side of the paper only.

An expert tells me that a smooth-coated fox terrier is the best breed for trick work. A cross-bred spaniel is also exceedingly in-telligent.

ar M'Liss—Would like to know what breed by is considered the most intelligent, and considered the most intelligent, and Philadelphia to Amsterdam, will it have to go through lact or show?

W. W. H. In times of war neutral mail should be inviolate. It has not been in this war. You remember, President Wilson wrote a note about it to England, to which there has telligent.

Dear M'Lias—is it true that mall from this country to a neutral country is opened by likely to be tampered with.

THE WOMAN WHO SEWS

Women who wish help with their dress problems should address all communications to the Fashion Expert, care of the Editor of the Woman's Page, Evening Ledger.

Where are the high collars of yester-year? A diligent search through the shops shows them to be conspicuous by their ab-sence. The few really high collars that are in vogue are cut quite V-shape in the front. Most of the frocks of summery materials have dainty sailor collars of mull or organdic, boldly turned down or frilled, or pave dainty sallor collars of mull or organdie, boldly turned down or frilled, or arranged any way that is smart. None are dip it in tea, made as if for drinking. The tight fitting.

Methinks that once again Paris has prethe way of the nipped-in corset. It is totally ignored. Even the fashionable woman would be comfortable this year. Memories of last summer's orgy of V-necked frocks and airy decolletes are too painful, and one season of choking is sufficient.

Be she old or young scrawns or plump.

Be she old or young, scrawny or plump, dark or light, there is a low collar to suit every type. It may be a long-lined, rolling shawl collar, or it may be the new "lampshade," which is drawn straight across the shoulders, back and front; or it may be a modest round neck of Quaker type—but there's a collar for all of us. And they're

Dear Madam—Would you kindly suggest a way to make a pale steel dress, nearly all silk? I am rather stout, I all and dark, have gray to was thinking of having a care collar thinking the steel of the steel o

The skirt of your freek will, of course, present your greatest problem. Skirts are alarmingly beruffled, be-tucked and betuniced this season. Their "bouffancy" also is a matter of grave consideration to the woman who is inclined to be atout. Her task is to achieve a skirt which will seem to have all the fulness that fashion demands and yet make the appears sillinger.

to have all the fulness that fashion demands and yet make her appear slimmer and not fatter than she actually is.

I would suggest a pointed tunic. Drop your underskirt on a lining, unless you have enough of the steel slik to afford an entire underskirt of it. Let the points of your tunic fall to the top of the hem in the front and back and do not let the slope up the side be higher than 12 inches. In this way you will avoid a broad line over the hips.

the hips.
A straight skirt with panels back and front and the sides dropped from a yoke will also guit your figure. The yoke will save it from utter severity.

Tou can have no siseves more attractive than severity ones. Have them set in Tou can have no siseves more attractive than georgette ones. Have them set in the an inner lining, and not attached to the armholes of your overblouse, which will be of the silk. I believe a georgette chemisette or vest with touches of hand embroidery in old blue floes silk would be entrancing. Tiny cut-steel buckles or boads will increase the expensiveness of the frock, but will add to it greatly.

A cape collar is smart, but be careful lost it exaggerate your size.

t exaggerate your size.

All the shades of blue will become you.

Gray should be excellent; black, if you have color; pink; lavender, if your skin is riear and white may all be worn with amountly. Avoid yellow, browns and greens.

that would be becoming. Pongee or shan-tung slik could be made into a pretty hat to go with your suit, simply cover a becoming buckram shape with the slik and put a band of grosgrain ribbon around the crown.

Dear Madam—I have some rare old lace that is very soiled. I want to use it on a champagne colored georgette frock. Can you give me directions for coloring the lace ecri? Do you think this would look prettier than white lace? I would have to buy new lace if I got the white. I am brown-haired and brown-eyed. GLENSIDE.

stronger the ten the deeper the color will be.

Dear Madam—What color would you advise me to choose for a dance frock? I am going to a college commencement, and want some-thing rather nice. I have light brown hair, clue eyes and a light complexion. I am shorter than the average, and medium build. I am very anxious to get something that suits my coloring.

You can wear almost any of the pastel shades. The style of your frock, as well as the color, must be carefully chosen, because too much overdrapery makes a plump person look stouter. But I assume from ; letter that you are going to buy your frock. Nile or chartreuse green, corn color, ashes of rose, orchid, ciel blue, or all white will suit you.

Quick Soup

A "hurry-up" broth for the invalid may be made by d'ssolving a tablespoonful of beef broth in a quart of boiling water, then adding a bit of celery salt, and seasoning to taste. Fut into a bowl with 4 teaspoons-fuls of boiled rice and two well -beaten eggs. Serve very hot. The latter is most im-portant

For Her Bridesmaids

A June bride was at a loss to choose something novel for her bridesmalds. Her final selection, gilt soft leather vanity cases with flat mirrors inside, was an instant success. Sprays of orange blossoms were painted in one corner. The name of the owner and the date of the wedding was neatly printed on the inside.

I Need Not Go

I need not go
Through sleet and snow
To where I know
She waits for me; She will tarry me there Till I find it fair And have time to spare From company.

What—not upbraid me
That I delay'd me.
Nor ask what stay'd me
So long? Ah, no.—
New cares may claim me,
New loves inflame me,
She will not blame me. New loves inflame me, She will not blame me. But suffer it so,
—Thomas Hardy.

"Faultless"

Bedding

Colonial Bedsteads

The two essentials for perfect summer bedrooms. Stuffy, dingy rooms transformed into inviting, charming dreamland, and pretty rooms made prettier and more luxurious. Faultless Bedding is everything its name implies, and our Colonial bedsteads, enameled old ivory and fawn gray, impart the daintiest and most cooling effect imaginable. You must have them to ensure a faultless summer.

Dougherty's Faultless Bedding Hair Mattresses. Box Springs. Brass Beds. 1632 CHESTNUT STREET

FOR CLOSING SCHOOL DAYS

HERE is a serviceable and attractive little wash frock for the closing days of school and for the summer, too. It features the long-waisted effect as well as the combination of materials. White galatea is used for the collar and cuffs, which are embroidered in the color of the blouse, as well as the belt and plaited skirt. The blouse, which is smocked in white and finished with pearl buttons, comes in plain and striped effects in several different materials. In striped madras it may be had in green, blue, pink or brown and white. It may be had in various solid colors in poplin, chambray and ratine chambray. In size from 10 to 14 years; price, $3.50.

The name of the shop where these articles may be purchased will be supplied by the Editor of the Woman's Page, EVENING LEDGER, 608 Chestnut street. The request must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and must mention the dat

GALLOPING CANCER MAY AFFECT PERSONS AT VARIOUS AGES

By WILLIAM A. BRADY, M. D. patient will surely recover—a large number of the patients do recover. But the important idea is to remember that there is such a thing as galloping can-cer, that it may affect a person of any age, that it resembles an acute inflamma-

ion or swelling, and that it is fatal in a few weeks or months unless radically treated at the very first.

Rose Wafers These are delicious for a summer candy-making party: Sift together 4 ounces of powdered sugar and 8 ounces of pastry

our. Then mix in, while beating steadily

a pinch of salt, a quarter pound of melted butter and the stiffly whipped whites of two eggs. A teaspoonful of rw ; extract scant measurement, follows. Now add enough sweet cream to form a batter that will fall in ribbons from the mixing spoon.

look in buttered wafer irons and dry care-

Consider the Elbow

The girl who wears sleeveless dance frocks, or transparencies of georgette that serve for sleeves, should do well to remember that the elbow, when not properly cared for, is most unattractive. It would be a good thing to make a habit of scrubbing the slibaws theroughly with a soft pail brush elbows thoroughly with a soft nail brush and warm water every night before retiring, and then rubbing a good cold cream well into the elbow. This softens the skin and makes it more pleasing to the series.

Mending Chairs

Every day picture wire is often useful to mend the bottom of chairs that have fallen through. Lace the wire across the bottom like a net, leaving 2-inch wide spaces. Then makes it more pleasing to the eye.

over with a large cretonne cushion treatment will prolong the life of many a orch chair.

fully in a sieve or cake rack.

Doctor Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to Health. If your question is of seneral interest, it will be answered through these columns; if not, it will be answered personally if stamued, addressed envelope is inclosed. Doctor Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address Dr. William Brady, care of the Evening Ledger.

TEARS ago we used to hear much of Y "galleping consumption." The term signified a very rapid course of the disease, what doctors now call acute phthisis, or a sort of tubercular pneumonia-an acute inflammation of a whole lobe or lung due to the tubercle bacillus.

There is a form of cancer which merits a similar title. It is called sarcoma. This kind of cancer possesses several distinguishing characteristics unlike ordinary cancer. Sarcoma occurs in persons of any age, from infancy to advanced years. Ordinary cancer is unusual in young persons Sarcoma develops acutely, whereas ord-inary cancer is insidious in onset. A child or adult suffers some slight injury, and weeks or months later trouble begins at the seat of injury, swelling, pain, tenderness, the symptoms suggesting "rheumatism" or inflammation or an abscess.

Galloping cancer may affect any organ or t ssue. It frequently develops in the long bones or arm or leg, in the jaw, in the soft tissues of the abdominal wall, in the nasal cavity.

Ordinary cancer spreads through its "roots"; that is, it follows the lymphatic or drainage channels of the affected area and takes root in the lymph glands near by as in the arm pit in cancer of the breast, or in the kernels under the jaw in cancer of the lip, face or tongue. Sarcoma spreads through the blood stream. Minute cancer cells break off from the parent cancer and are hurled afar through the circulation (metastases), lodging, perhaps, in the lungs, the brain or elsewhere in some distant organ. Hence, the surgical treatment of ordinary cancer offers fair prospects if all the neighboring lymph giands are excised at the same time, but the surgical removal of sarcoma, even at the earliest possible time, may be futile if perchance some metastasis has already occurred.

stasis has already occurred.

There is this favorable point, however:
While ordinary concer has no definite limiting wall, but shades off imperceptibly into sound tissue, sarcoma is generally sharply defined from surrounding tissues. So that, when a sarcoma is removed, pro-vided metastasis has not occurred, the HEMSTITCHING 5e YD. NECO EDGE? Embroidering Novelty Embroidery Co.

Gloves Elbow Length (Silk)

Regular quality-$1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and a great many pairs of $2.00 COLORS—White, Black, Pink, Hine, Lavender, Sky, Flesh, Nile, Reseda, Dark Green, Tan, Brown, Red, Hello-trope and Gold.

> Wrist Length (Silk) Regular qualities, $.75 and $1.00. Some were $1.25.

COLORS White, Black, Tan, Gold, Brown, Reseda and Copenhagen. Elbow Length, with Lace Arms Black-Regular $2.00.

A Great Opportunity to Buy Your Gloves for the Week End

No C. O. D. No exchanges No charges.

SPECIAL

Thursday, Friday, Saturday

To close out last season's colors in all qualities, elbow and wrist-length silk gloves.

Centemeri

To Clean Kitchen Walls

To Clean Kitchen Walls

"Kindly advise me through the Corner what I may clean my kitchen walls with, as they are painted and have become spotted with water and grease.

Scrub with warm scapsuds and a large sponge. If this does not do the work satisfactorily, add kerosene to warm water and sponge again. Dry quickly with soft cloths. Baking soda will take off spots from painted walls, applied with a damp cloth dipped into a saucer of the powder. It is a trade secret, I suspect, although we submit the query to Cornerites, who may be able to enlighten you. Request for Browning's Poems Origin of "John Bull"

"Your correspondents have been so ready to tell how the nickname 'Uncle Sam' was first applied to the United States, perhaps they may be able to inform us why Great Britain (or was it only England?) got the name of 'John Bull.' Will you oblige me by putting the question? I. C. S."

With all my heart! The Corner seconds the inquiry. the inquiry.

Wants Copy of Poem

"While attending a vaudeville at one of our playhouses here I heard a young man recite a poem called The Gate at the End of Things. It was so true to life and nature that I have always wanted to get a copy of it. Not knowing the author, I don't quite know where or how to get it. So I come to your Corner!
"BLANCHE B."

And the Corner, being aitogether ignorant with regard to the desired rhymes, comes to constitutents for aid and comfort. Who wrote the poem and who will send in a copy for Bianche B., who depends upon us to find what she can secure nowhere size? where else?

Sulphur for Bedbugs "Will you kindly tell a good way for getting rid of bedbugs? Do you consider the burning of sulphur as effective? If so, how do you use it? Is it necessary to remove wearing apparel from the close "C. H. B."

The sulphur treatment is highly commended by an excellent authority. According to her, a pound of flowers of sulphur is put into a metal vessel—a shallow bakepan will do. Upon this is poured a quart of alcohol. The pan is set upon a platform of bricks and a sheet of zine laid under the bricks. I should have said that the room is swept and dusted well first of all, and the sweepings burned. You need not remove the clothing, but the fumes darken metal. Then the windows are closed and the sulphur is ignited. Shut the room up closely and do not open for five or six hours. My authority assures me that Mrs. M. F. H. will be true to her promise and copy the poem for you if you will send stamped and self-directed envelope to us for her use. The requests for other poems are referred to liberal-minded and free-handed members, each of whom wishes to be written down "as one who loves his fellow men." You know, I suppose. "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" is by James Whitcomb Riley. If you have access to a library containing a collection of his works you may copy it for yourself. "I am a girl of 18 and have tried many things to clear my complexion. My face is covered with pimples and it is 'scaly.' Will you please help me out of the trouble? "I. R. C."

Ours is not a "beauty corner." We have six hours. My authority assures me that not a bug escapes the effect of the fumigat-ing. She adds that it is well to try the "cure" just before repapering and painting in the spring, that the walls may get the full benefit of it. There are dozens of other ways (all warranted!) of clearing the premises of the loathsome "cimex lectular-ius!" For that is the scientific name of the "beastie" we dread to mention "to ear naught to do with cosmetics, paint, powders polite." Housewives are invited to con-tribute sure and certain methods of exter-"I am anxious to interview you person-ally and ask that you answer through the paper how I may reach you in person. minating him. The early summer is the best time for trying any or all of these.

Not a Beauty Column

Write a Letter

My residence is so far distant from the

and it will be answered in due season

Gasoline for Moths

doubt will do more harm.
"MRS. F. W. M."

Is there any more effectual way of disposing of the pests—winged and larvae—than by soaking the chair with clear gasoline and pouring the same into the floor cracks and corners all through the room?

Sweep and dust well before using the gaso-line, and when you have done it, shut the room up closely for 24 hours. No insect life can endure through the process. Have no

TO STORY

PROPERTY LAND

Wrist Watches

with bracelet or ribbon

in gold, enamel and

Z. J. Péquignot

1331 Walnut Street

platinum jeweled.

and hair dyes.

Shiny Noses

city from which you write that a meeting is not practicable at present. Write what you wish to say under cover to the paper A shiny nose is a dreadful calamity at any time, but the worst shiny nose of all is the summer shine. Especially at the meashore the offending member takes on a redness that is positively alarming. The "During the last months I have noticed "During the last months I have noticed moths flying around my parlor and have caught some of them. I do not mean to say there are many, but now I am beginning to find small white worms in a large tapestry chair. Please tell me what I can use to get rid of these destroying pests. They have made a small hole in the tapestry and no doubt will do more harm. best way to treat it is to buy a tube of good sticky cold cream. Apply this to the nose just after the face has been washed. A thick coat of powder over this prevents undue shinness, but even this has to be renewed. Will some one please come forth with a recipe for an absolutely shineless nose?

W. C. T. U. HOLDS ITS 32D ANNUAL SESSION artificial light near while the gasoline is in hand, and open the room in broad daylight, letting the air sweep freely through it for hours to dispel the odor.

Philadelphia County Organiz tion Hears Gratifying Reports of Year's Work

The 32d annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Philadelphia County started sensions norning in the Second Church of the United Brethren, 59th and Catharine streets,

The convention was called to order the morning by the county president, Mrs 11 feeed by the Rev. S. C. Buck. The appoint ment of important committees was next a the program. Then the delegates were well comed by the president of the Sherwood Union, the response being by Mrs. Kente of the Germantown Union.

of the Germantown Union.

Reports of the county superintendents of the society showed gratifying progress. Among those who spoke on subjects perinnent to the work of the society were Miss. A. Holden, Mrs. C. M. Knox, Mrs. F. Janney, Miss A. E. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Hosbert, Madame Layyah Barakat, Mrs. E. R. Ferguson, Miss A. E. Ranch, Mrs. G. Shields, Mrs. M. E. Stevenson, Mrs. E. M. Vali, Mrs. Olive Pond-Amies, Mrs. K. D. Hauck, Mrs. J. W. Alexander, Mrs. L. F. Bresetti, Mrs. J. J. Fricke, Mrs. Mary Plesson and Miss A. E. Willson.

Keeping Bills Down

The working girl has to consider many things when she buys her summer togger, for it is not only a question of buying and paying for light summer dresses that interests the business girl, but another question as important is that of having it laundered. Laundry bills can make a goodly hole is any business girl's pocketbook. And the season's styles call for wide, frilly petticoats, and wide frilly skirts over them, and plenty of ruffles—all of which spell more ironing for the laundress and consequently more to pay for. Dark wash materials are best such as voiles, crepes, etc., although these are hard to get, because of the scarsity of dyes. A couple of dark crepe de chine blouses and a serviceable wash slik petticoat will also save laundry bills. ticoat will also save laundry bills.

SPORT SUITS of Knitted Jersey Cloth in both Light and Heavyweight No garment is quite so difficult to allor as the sport suit. For though must have a free and easy al: about it yet it must be perfect of fit and up to the very minute in style. The models that we are

$15.00 & $19.50

showing possess these characteristics in a marked degree, yet their

For This Week Only

The Lace Shop

922 Chestnut Street

Bargains for Wednesday Only

4000 Yards of Laces and Embroideries, including Black Silk Laces, White and Cream Net Top Laces, Point de Paris Laces, Neat Embroidery Edges, Insertions and Beadings, values up to 50c a yard. Your 10c a yd.

$1.00 New Voile Waists at

55c

$2.50 Muslin Underwear, including Gowns, Envelope Chemise and Combinations, trimmed with beautiful Laces and Embroideries, special at .. $1.10

$1.50 Satin Camisoles at 95c

45c

75c Silk and Lace Boudoir Caps

85c a Yard, Real Irish Insertions with Roses, 28c a yd.

Real Irish Drop, like cut, value $1.00 a doz- 30c a doz. Real Irish Roses, like cut, 65c a yard White Cotton Nets, 72 ins. wide, at...

25c Women's and Children's Silk Handkerchiefs at